

THE LONG VIEW: LONGITUDINAL STUDIES IN SCOTLAND

26th & 27th FEBRUARY 2004

Longitudinal Studies Centre – Scotland
University of St Andrews

DAY 1 REGISTRATION 12.30 – 1.30 PM

	Title	Speaker
1.30 pm	Welcome Address
1.35 pm	Overview of the Event	Paul Boyle, University of St Andrews
1.50 pm	Longitudinal Data and Scottish Affairs	Ann Millar, Scottish Executive
2.10 pm	The Long View	J Gershuny, University of Essex
2.40 pm	Coffee and Informal Discussions
3.00 pm	British Household Panel Survey – Living in Scotland	Nick Buck, University of Essex
3.30 pm	Millennium Cohort Study	Lisa Calderwood, Institute of Education
4.00 pm	Scottish Longitudinal Study	Paul Boyle, University of St Andrews
4.30 pm	Discussion and Questions
4.45 pm	The Scottish Economy	David Bell, University of Stirling
5.15 pm	Education – The Long View	David Raffae, University of Edinburgh
5.45 pm	Discussion and Questions
7.30 pm	Dinner at the Rusacks Hotel

DAY2 9.00 AM CLOSE 4.30 PM

	Title	Speaker
9.15 pm	Ageing and Fertility in Scotland	Robert Wright, University of Stirling
9.45 pm	Scotland's Views and Opinions	Lindsay Paterson, University of Edinburgh
10.15 pm	Researching the Early Years	Simon Anderson, Scotcen
10.45 pm	E- Social Science	Robert Crouchley, University of Lancaster
11.15 pm	Coffee
11.30 pm	Discussions on Ethical Issues
12.15 pm	Lunch at the Rusacks Hotel
1.30 pm	Longitudinal Research Past, Present and Future	Ian Diamond, ESRC
	Data Sets
2.00 pm	Aberdeen Children of the 1950s study	David Leon, LSHT
2.20 pm	Scottish Mental Survey	Ian Deary, University of Edinburgh
2.40 pm	Walker Project	Deirdre Murphy, University of Dundee
3.00 pm	West of Scotland Twenty-07 study: health in the community and the West of Scotland 11-16 and 16+ studies.	Patrick West, MRC Social & Public Health Sciences Unit
3.20 pm	Afternoon Tea
3.40 pm	The Birth Cohort Studies	Heather Joshi, Institute of Education
4.00 pm	Edinburgh Study of Youth Transitions and Crime	David J. Smith, University of Edinburgh
4.20 pm	Closing Remarks / Questions	Paul Boyle, University of St Andrews